

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 253
By Graves

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Carolyn Lea Wilson and her family and consumer science class at E. B. Wilson High School for their outstanding contributions to the citizens of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this General Assembly recognize those worthy citizens who give unreservedly of themselves for the benefit of their community; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn Lea Wilson and her family and consumer science class at E.B. Wilson High School in Hendersonville is one such group of individuals deserving of special recognition; and

WHEREAS, the family and consumer science class donated thirty-two quilts they made to the ABC Foundation; and

WHEREAS, this is the first time in Middle or West Tennessee that a group of high school students will donate baby quilts to the ABC Foundation; and

WHEREAS, the ABC Foundation is an organization that receives donated quilts for babies and toddlers who are afflicted with a terminal illness or are dying of AIDS; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn Lea Wilson, the teacher of the family and consumer science class, stresses to her class the need to help others that are not fortunate enough to help themselves; and
